AmeriCorps Service

Healthy Lincoln AmeriCorps Members will serve their sites as School Wellness Leaders. Members will passionately encourage students to pursue a healthy lifestyle by teaching them how to stay physically active, how to grow fresh produce, and how to prepare healthy meals. Members will engage with school staff, coordinate family nights, and creatively seek opportunities to promote wellness within their site.

The service year begins August 1, 2026, and ends July 31st, 2027. Healthy Lincoln AmeriCorps Members will be committed to serving 300 hours during this program year, committing to ~30 hours per month. Members will attend monthly team meetings, monthly team training, and community events as part of this service experience.

After reading the above service outline, describe why you want to serve as an AmeriCorps member:
